Student Board
Applications now open

The University of Edinburgh

Una Europa is a unique alliance of 11 leading European research universities working together to create a truly inter-university environment - designing new opportunities for students and staff through research, joint programmes, and collaborative projects.

Role